

Social Studies Distributed Learning Resources

- Social Studies 6: Alberta Education, in partnership with Pearson Education Canada, has developed a Learn EveryWare resource. This DVD resource contains electronic pages of the textbook Many Voices 6 with embedded notes, multimedia, line masters and additional information to guide a distributed learning student. This Learn EveryWare resource is online and in a print format.
- Social Studies 7: This print distributed learning resource consists of six student module booklets, with integrated multimedia, and corresponding assignment booklets.
- Social Studies 8: This print distributed learning resource consists of six student module booklets, with integrated multimedia, and corresponding assignment booklets.
- Social Studies 9: The online and print distributed learning course consists of five student modules, with integrated multimedia, and corresponding assignments developed around the textbook Issues for Canadians by Nelson Education. An online version of Social Studies 9 is available, with a print version to follow.
- Social Studies 10-1: The online and print distributed learning course consists of six student modules, developed around the textbook Perspectives on Globalization by Oxford University Press. Online and print versions of Social Studies 10-1 are available.
- Social Studies 10-2: The online and print distributed learning course consists of six student modules, developed around the textbook Living in a Globalizing World by Oxford University Press. Online and print versions of Social Studies 10-2 are available.
- Social Studies 20-1: The online and print distributed learning course consists of six student modules developed around the textbook Exploring Nationalism by McGraw-Hill Ryerson. An online version of Social Studies 20-1 is available, with a print version to follow.
- Social Studies 20-2: The online and print distributed learning course consists of six student modules developed around the textbook Understanding Nationalism by McGraw-Hill Ryerson. An online version of Social Studies 20-2 is available, with a print version to follow.
- Social Studies 30-1: An online field-test version of Social Studies 30-1 is available. This course consists of seven student modules developed around the textbook Perspectives on Ideology by Oxford University Press Canada. Teachers that use these materials are encouraged to supply feedback on the content, design and usability of the course to merlin.flock@gov.ab.ca. This feedback will shape modifications to the course that will be implemented in the Final Authorized Course scheduled for release in summer 2010.
- Social Studies 30-2: An online field-test version of Social Studies 30-2 is available. This course consists of six student modules developed around the textbook Understandings of Ideologies by Oxford University Press Canada. Teachers that use these materials are encouraged to supply feedback on the content, design and usability of the course to merlin.flock@gov.ab.ca. This feedback will shape modifications to the course that will be implemented in the Final Authorized Course scheduled for release in summer 2010.