Resident Student

- 44(8) If both parents have care and custody of a student and each parent is a resident of a different school district or division, as the case may be,
- (a) the parents shall choose in writing one of those school districts or divisions,
 - (b) the student is a resident student of the board of the chosen district or division,
 - (c) the student shall attend the school the student is directed to attend by the board of the chosen district or division, and
 - (d) either board may require that the choice of the parents under clause (a) shall remain in effect during the school year in respect of which it is made.
