Long-term Goal Setting

Name: Douglas

Klasse: 4

Datum: February 1

---

Goal #1:

By the end of this term, I would like to: know what to say to ask for directions in German.

To achieve this goal, I will: look up the words I need to know and write a role-play to perform with a friend.

My teacher can help me: with my pronunciation and make sure I am saying things properly. Maybe there's a video I can watch.

My parents can help me by: practising my role-play with me at home.

Goal #2:

By the end of this term, I would like to: learn more about what it's like to live in Germany.

To achieve this goal, I will: research Germany on the Internet and ask my neighbour, Mrs. Gonzales, what it's like to live there.

My teacher can help me by: bringing in books and pictures of Germany and, maybe, showing a movie.

My parents can help me by: buying me a book on Germany for my birthday and taking me to Germany on vacation!

Note: This goal-setting sheet allows students to set long-term goals for their own learning and could be included in students' learning logs.

Note: This form of Anecdotal Notes allows teachers to gather information about several different students as their performance relates to different learning outcomes at different times. In this sample, wherever an unsatisfactory performance was observed, the teacher planned another opportunity to observe the same student complete an activity in which the same learning outcome is addressed. The information provided by using this type of tool can be used to modify future instruction or to discuss students' learning.

Notes for future planning: do a role-play activity in which we talk about productive strategies students can use when speaking Spanish; e.g., use nonverbal means to communicate, use familiar repetitive patterns from stories, songs and rhymes, compensate for avoiding difficult structures by rephrasing. Students then record the ideas in their learning logs and set goals for using them.

Note: This Checklist and Comments tool demonstrates how a teacher can gather information on several students' performances as they relate to one learning outcome. The teacher can also use this information to plan for future instruction.
